

Inaugural Wagyu and Brew Tapped for September 9, 2017

Beef and Beer Bash Benefit Boys Grow

(Kansas City, MO—August 3, 2017) The very best local beef and brews will be served up at iWerx' inaugural Wagyu and Brew, noon to 5 p.m., Sept. 9, 2017 at iWerx, 1520 Clay St., North Kansas City, MO 64116.

Wagyu and Brew will feature fresh, hot-off-the-grill burgers made from Chris Brant's 100% full-blood Japanese Black Wagyu beef. Brant is the owner of the Reserve Cattle Company in Garden City, MO. Wagyu is famed for its superior marbling, which makes these burgers the most delicious and juiciest on the planet! Quite simply, Brant's cattle produce some of the best beef you will ever taste.

Wagyu and Brew is a rare opportunity to experience the impressive flavor, moisture, and texture of locally raised Wagyu beef in a fun environment featuring live music and beer from Kansas City's top micro-breweries. It is an event you won't want to miss!

Tickets for Wagyu and Brew are limited and priced at $20 on-line; $25 the day of the event, should any be left. The admission price is good for a fresh Wagyu burger served on a bun accompanied by local farm-to-table produce. Ticket holders also get to choose a beer of their liking from a selection of KC area breweries served in a commemorative mug.

Wagyu and Brew ticket sales also benefit Boys Grow. Boys Grow is a non-profit organization that takes inner city kids out to the farm where they learn discipline, social entrepreneurship, and the business side of agriculture.

Early registration is recommended as sales are limited to the amount of beef available.

About Boys Grow:

Boys Grow is a local non-profit organization whose mission is to help mentor Kansas City's urban youth through agricultural entrepreneurship. Each summer, 30 youth ages 14 -16 commit to a 2 year position working on the BoysGrow farm. As is often the first payed job for the boys, they learn to work together and develop core vocational skills that are applicable in the market like culinary arts, construction, farming, marketing, and public speaking. Through farming and agriculture the boys gain pride, identity, discipline, and an understanding of the business world.
